

PSILOS GROUP MANAGERS

Amanda Lampert
Sr. Accountant

Amanda Lampert joined Psilos in 2008 as its Senior Accountant. She is responsible for assisting the controller with the accounting of the funds and the Management Company, internal and external financial reporting, and coordination of the annual audits of the Psilos funds.

Prior to Psilos, Amanda Lampert spent two years at KPMG in the financial services sector. She worked primarily on investment management and funds clients. Having spent most of her time on the Legg Mason Mutual Fund engagement, Amanda was responsible for the financial reporting of each mutual fund, the valuation of its investments held, and aiding the client in the preparation of the annual report to its shareholders. Ms. Lampert holds a B.S. in Accounting from the A.B. Freeman School of Business at Tulane University.
