

PSILOS GROUP MANAGERS

Joseph Riley
Managing Member

Joseph Riley joined Psilos in 1998 as its chief financial officer, and now serves as a managing member and chief administrative officer for the firm. He has primary responsibility for financial reporting, cash and capital management, and facilities and infrastructure oversight, while also taking an active role in the sourcing, evaluation and monitoring of investment opportunities for the Psilos funds. Mr. Riley currently serves on the Board of Directors of Best Doctors, Comprehensive Clinical Development, Care Management Technologies, Caregiver Services and SmartPill.

Prior to Psilos, Mr. Riley spent six years at Price Waterhouse LLP, most recently as a manager in the Corporate Finance Group. In that role, he planned and performed due diligence reviews, analyzed financial models and operating projections and assisted clients with structuring complex transactions and contracts. Mr. Riley has extensive experience in advising mergers and acquisitions in the healthcare, manufacturing and food services industries. Previously, he spent three years as a senior accountant in the Price Waterhouse Audit and Business Advisory Services Group, where he provided attestation and general business consulting services to a large variety of public and private multinational corporations. Mr. Riley holds an M.B.A. from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and a B.S. in Accounting from Georgetown University, where he graduated magna cum laude. He is a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants.
